

NAPLES FLORIDA WEEKLY®

IN THE KNOW. IN THE NOW.

WEEK OF APRIL 27-MAY 3, 2023

www.FloridaWeekly.com

Vol. XVI, No. 27 • FREE

ON THE MOVE

John R. Wood Christie's International Real Estate brokerage announced the addition of seven new agents in March, six of which are affiliated with Lee County offices. In Naples, Alison Sullivan has joined the Fifth Ave. South office. "We are pleased to welcome these talented new agents and look forward to their success," said Phil Wood, president of John R. Wood Christie's International Real Estate.

SULLIVAN

Artis—Naples announced conductor Alexander Shelley has been named the Sharon and Timothy Ubben Artistic and Music Director. He begins his tenure in the 2024-25 season, and his partnership with Artis—Naples begins immediately as artistic and music director designate through the 2023-24 season. He will provide artistic leadership for the Naples Philharmonic, as well as the entire multidisciplinary organization. This appointment marks the

SHELLEY

WEISBERG

Raymond James welcomed financial advisor Richard Weisberg, CRPS to Raymond James Financial Services — the firm's independent advisor channel in Naples. Operating as Weisberg Wealth Management, he is joined by client service associates Nancy Comparetto and Cheryl Krebs. The practice serves individuals and families in addition to institutions such as corporate retirement plans, non-profits conductor's first titled position in the U.S. In addition to his role at Artis—Naples, he will remain music director of Canada's National Arts Centre Orchestra and principal associate conductor of London's Royal Philharmonic Orchestra.

and endowments and foundations. Previously, the group was affiliated with UBS Financial Services where they managed more than $350 million in client assets. A 28-year industry veteran, Mr. Weisberg formerly held roles as senior vice president – wealth management, wealth advisor, senior retirement plan consultant, institutional consultant and endowment and foundation consultant at Merrill Lynch and UBS Financial Services.

KRAUS

Baker Senior Center Naples announced the recent appointment two new members of its Board of Trustees. George Kraus is a retired businessman with more than 60 years of experience, most recently serving as co-founder of JBS Associates in Ringwood, New Jersey. Before that, he was the founder of Data Line Corp., which installed communication networks in retail environments nationwide. He also has served as founder or co-founder of charitable organizations supporting women's and children's causes like New Hour for Women & Children, Crossing Thresholds, Operation Link-up and Bridges to Community. Stephen Pino is a retired professional with years of experience in the pharmaceuticals industry. Most recently, he served as director of market development for Shire Pharmaceuticals, a specialty biopharmaceutical company originating in the United Kingdom and acquired by Takeda Pharmaceutical Company in 2019. Before that, he held positions with Reckitt Benckiser Pharmaceuticals, Bausch and Lomb, and Merck & Co. Mr. Pino served as a committee member with the Bonita Bay Community Association and Bonita Bay Club, on the boards of Temple Shalom in Naples and of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, South Gulf Coast Chapter. ■

PINO

Baker
Senior Center
Naples